SLOVENIA ARTISTS LAUNCH EXHIBITION AT THE CORK VISION CENTRE

Thirteen artists from Slovenia will launch an exhibition of their work at the Cork Vision Centre as part of Enlargement, a Cork 2005 year long exhibition displaying the artistic qualities of the new states of the expanded European Union on Tuesday 5 April at 11am.

The artists and curator of the exhibition, entitled Eye Try, from the KIBLA multimedia centre in Slovenia's second city Maribor, will host a private viewing of the exhibition and will be available for interviews and photographs.

Ranging across the full spectrum of media, the exhibition will include paintings; installations; photography; sculpture; video and live performance.

You are cordially invited to attend and we look forward to seeing you there.
